

100% INDEPENDENCE

PACKAGE INFO

For the diving teams who value their independence, both in water and not. Minimal contact with our team, after check in, paperwork and your gas-blender-check. We pick you up in the morning, drive you to the boat or location, pre-dive briefing is mandatory, then we bring you back home. At any point we are available to you, from equipment assistance, to restaurant reservations, but the goal of this package is to allow the team to be alone and live the experience as independently as you like.
